SLAYER OF HUMBERT.

He Is an Anarchist and Gives No Reason for the Crime.

HE LIVED IN AMERICA

He Left New Jersey in May and Carried Out the Lot Supposed to Have Been Delegated to Him Some Months Ago.

New York, July 31.—Angelo Bressi, the assassin of King Humbert at Monza, Italy, for over a year lived in Paterson, N. J. He appeared to have had various names. The name he gave when taken into custody for the murder of the king of Italy was Angelo Bressi. Another was Anglus Bressi and still another, the one by which he will be known to those who know him in Paterson, was Gaetano Bressi. He was employed in Hamill & Booth's silk mills. His close friend there was Cariboni Sperandio, the man who a few weeks ago shot down his foreman and then killed himself, leaving behind a letter telling how he had been selected by lot to kill King Humbert and having a choice, owing to his living so far away from Italy, killed the foreman instead.

A few months ago a man said to be Count Moletski, the head of the Italian anarchists, was in Paterson and during his stay Sperandio and Bressi were his companions. It would seem that when his friend faltered at regicide, Bressi took up his burden and went across the ocean to carry out the decree that Humbert should die.

In manner Bressi was quiet. Men who worked beside him say he was the last one they would suspect as an assassin. He spoke little and volunteered nothing about himself. When there was a shop call and the men went on one of their numerous strikes, Bressi left his looms obediently, but was never one of the first. Each Saturday night he left the mill and hurried to Hoboken, where his wife and little girl are said to live, but never brought his family to Paterson.

Bressi roomed in the center of the anarchist section. His meals were taken at the Hotel Bartholdi. The proprietor of the hotel says he knows the man well. Bressi, according to the proprietor, came into his place three times a day for six days a week. He was never there on Sundays. Beyond bidding the time of day to the proprietor and the waiter, he spoke to no one. He was tall and dark and had stooping shoulders. To some it was known that his radical ideas were extreme and that he was of the inner circle of anarchists.

Bressi entered the employ of Hamill & Booth on Aug. 8, 1899. He worked steadily through until May 4, 1900. On that day he left the mill and was in Paterson, but seldom afterward. On May 23 last he sailed on the French line steamer Havre for Europe. Where he spent the intervening time is not known.

Paterson has long been a hotbed of anarchists. Men here who are familiar more or less with the workings of the organization say that for years Paterson has contained more of the society than any other city in the United States, with the possible exception of Chicago. There is a strong socialist element in Paterson and the anarchists formerly worked with this element without allowing the socialists to know that it had the support of the violent ones.

The anarchists tried to control the socialists, and failing dropped away from that movement, denounced the socialists because of their peacefulness and claimed that they were traitors, although the socialists had never tried anything but peaceful methods and were purely political and law abiding.

The anarchists embraced every strike in Paterson for a long time as a means of fermenting trouble. During the great silk strike three years ago when that industry was compelled to locate factories in different parts of the country, the anarchists did more than anyone else to bring about the removal of the mills. They used dynamite and all their efforts to destroy factories were frustrated. They created such a feeling of uneasiness that the manufacturers moved.

When the empress of Austria was assassinated the anarchists had a big celebration, but not openly.

When the news came they slipped out of the city and assembled at a prearranged point, where they held their jollification, and when it was over returned to Paterson. As they had gone singly and at intervals, they avoided general notice.

ANARCHISTS REJOICE.

They Meet and Approve the Murder of King Humbert.

New York, July 31.—There was a meeting of anarchists in Paterson, N. J., Monday night at which the killing of King Humbert was endorsed. A reporter who sought admittance was welcomed as it was said that these anarchists wanted the whole world to know their sentiments.

The principal speaker at the meeting was Ernesto Crevella, 31 years of age. In the course of an impassioned address he said:

"We are members of the group of anarchists to which Bressi belonged. He is a martyr. He has done what we would have him do. Ask me do we approve of the killing of King Humbert. I will answer the question before you ask it. Of course we do. It was not our instruction to Bressi to kill, but he has done what he knew to be right, and we will sustain him and give him our sympathy. Was Humbert ever kind to us? No. Was he good to the poor? No. He was a monarch, and all monarchs, according to our vows, must die."

"Let Nicholas of Russia tremble and let the new king of Italy prepare for death. They are both inhuman. They are inhuman because they are monarchs. They would not consent to take the places on the thrones were they not inhuman. It is a republic that we want and it is a republic that the anarchists in every country will have."

Then came an implied threat against high officials in this country when a young woman shouted:

"They have run us out of Italy, where to have stayed we would have been forced to have starved. We have come here. Things are no better here. We are treated like dogs in the mills. We are not considered human by Americans. We do not starve, but there is a worse death than starvation. It is neglect. Who is responsible for this government? We will try to better it by fair means, and if we cannot succeed then we will resort to other methods."

Body of the King.

Monza, July 31.—The body of King Humbert, dressed in black, lies in the bed ordinarily used by him. Around is a massive candelabra holding burning tapers at the foot and at the head a bed of flowers placed by Queen Margherita, who passed the lone hours of the night in prayer by the bed on which the body lies.

Father Bignami, court chaplain, is in immediate charge of the bier. The archbishop of Milan has ordered requiem mass in all the churches of his diocese.

Enormous numbers of telegrams of regret and condolence continue to arrive, including messages from the most illustrious families at Rome.

On the Way to Monza.

London, July 31.—A special dispatch from Rome says King Victor Emmanuel III has arrived at Brindisi unexpectedly. The king and queen started for Monza immediately after reaching Brindisi.

Ready to Kill Others.

Monza, July 31.—Bressi maintains an air of most cynicism. He declares himself to be a revolutionary anarchist and said he was ready to resume operations if released.

WILL OPPOSE M'KINLEY.

Senator Willington States He Is Opposed to the Policy of the President.

Cumberland, Md., July 31.—George L. Willington, the senior Republican United States senator from Maryland, has definitely announced his intention to oppose the reelection of President McKinley, but has not yet made up his mind in what manner he will do it. In discussing his position Senator Willington said yesterday:

"I am unalterably and forever opposed to imperialism, which I shall fight with all my power. I am opposed to President McKinley because he has deceived me in national affairs and I shall oppose his reelection. I am not now prepared to state what course I shall take in the campaign, but I will attend, if possible, the coming liberty congress at Indianapolis. I do not know whether I shall support Bryan or not. There are some things about him that I do not approve."

Stevens Succeeds Himself.

Mineral Wells, Tex., July 31.—John H. Stevens was renominated here by the Democrats of the Thirteenth congressional district for congress.

Lanham Renominated.

Fort Worth, Tex., July 31. Colonel S. W. T. Lanham of Weatherford was nominated by acclamation here Monday afternoon by the Democrats of Eighth congressional district as their candidate for a seat in the lower house of congress.

Swazey's Cattle Deal.

Kansas City, July 31.—It is impossible at this time to determine the extent of the cattle operations of E. L. Swazey who, it is charged, is en route to South America. Of a total of $1,600,000 worth of his paper said to be afloat, $1,300,000 has been located. Already two banks are claiming the same herd of cattle in Hemphill, Tex., and it is alleged that that banks in Kansas City, Springfield, Mass., Philadelphia and Lancaster, Pa., and St. Joseph, Mo., are losers.

Twenty Mexicans Held.

Eagle Pass, Tex., July 31.—Twenty Mexicans about to proceed to the Indian Territory are held under a close guard here suspected of having been engaged in Mexico as coal miners, in contravention of the contract labor law. W. F. Kelley, who has been here for some days looking for miners, was arrested, being charged with violation of the labor law,

Broke His Neck.

Temple, Tex., July 31.—George Sinclair, a carpenter, employed at the Temple Ice Factory building, suddenly fell while at work. He fell over a trestle and broke his neck. It was the opinion of the physician who examined him that he had fallen from an attack of apoplexy. Deceased belonged in Dallas where he lived with his mother and sisters.

SURRENDER OF BOERS.

Prinsloo Makes the Deal After an Exchange of Letters.

London, July 31.—The surrender of the entire force under General Prinsloo was brought about after an exchange of letters. Generals Clements, MacDonald and Rundle cooperated in this arduous and brilliant campaign, but General Hunter received the credit for the capture of this large force, and will be one of the heroes of the war.

Commandants Prinsloo, Roodfourie and Colonel Bie are among the Boer leaders in the Orange River Colony who have surrendered. De Wet's is the only force of any importance still in arms in the colony, and this is reported to be held at bay near Rietzberg by Colonel Broadwood's troops, with General Methuen marching from Potchefstroom to complete the investment.

A large British army will be released in the eastern district of the Orange River Colony for final operations in the Transvaal.

The satisfaction caused by the surrender of Commandant Prinsloo is clouded by the painful recital in the Daily News of the shocking manner in which Gen.
Rundle's men have been starved during the campaign.

Number Surrendered Decreasing.

London, July 31.—A dispatch received at the war office from Lord Roberts materially modifies the statement of the surrender of 5000 rebels under General Prinsloo. It now appears that Generals Prinsloo, Villiers and Crowther surrendered 985 men, 1432 horses, 955 rifles and a Krupp 9-pounder. Some leaders in more distant parts of the hills hesitate to come on the plea they are independent of General Prinsloo.

Lord Roberts adds that he directed General Hunter to resume hostilities forthwith and listen to no excuses.

ONE ARREST MADE.

Duncan McLennan Charged With Murder of His Son and Son-in-Law.

Waco, Tex., July 31.—After 11 o'clock last night Justice Earle issued a warrant for the arrest of Duncan McLennan, Sr., on a charge of murdering his son, Duncan McLennan, Jr., and his son-in-law, Myron C. Kingsbury.

The old man attended the funeral of his son yesterday under the surveillance of officers.

Justice Earle, Sheriff Baker and County Attorney Thomas was closeted with the venerable man for several hours and at the conclusion of the conference Judge Earle wrote the warrant which was served by Sheriff Baker, and Duncan McLennan, Sr., was placed in jail.

He made a lengthy statement to the officers. Notes which Myron C. Kingsbury negotiated and which are alleged in the grand jury indictments to be forgeries bear the name of Duncan Mc-Lennan, Sr., running up into thousands of dollars.

Confesses the Crime.

Waco, Tex., July 31.—Duncan Mc-Lennan, Sr., has confessed to the bloody deed of double murder in the killing of Duncan McLennan his son, and M. C.
Kingsbury, his son-in-law. The clothes he wore at the time of the killing were found at his home and bear out his statement. They are covered with human blood. The old man is still in jail.

Unique Election Bet.

Elkart, Ind., July 31.—A novel election wager has been made at Burr Oak, Mich. Arthur Williams, proprietor of a livery barn, has entered a written agreement to support George Stebbins' mother-in-law rest of her life in case Bryan is elected, and Stebbins is to publicly twist the tail of a vicious mule owned by Williams every day for three weeks, in the event of McKinley's election. Life insurance agents are giving Mr. Stebbins a wide berth.

Election in Cuba.

Washington, July 31.—The war department has issued an order for general election to be held in Cuba the third Saturday in September to elect delegates to the convention to be held in Havana the first Monday in November. This convention is to frame and adopt a constitution for the people of Cuba.

Pastor Dangerously Ill.

New York, July 31.—Rev. Horace Porter, first assistant pastor of Plymouth church, Brooklyn, is dangerously ill in a private sanitarium in Brooklyn and his recovery is doubtful. His condition is the result of being thrown from his bicycle on Brooklyn bridge about six weeks ago, when he is believed to have suffered an injury to the spinal cord.

Killed by His Brother-in-Law.

Milan, Mo., July 31.—Isaac Webb, living one-half mile north of here, died here from the injuries received by being struck over the head with a chair by his brother-in-law, named Catlett. It is alleged that Webb came home drunk, and was abusing his wife when Catlett used the chair.

Queen Victoria's Son Dead.

London, July 31.—The reigning Duke of Saxe-Coburg, second son of Queen Victoria and formerly known as Duke of Edinburgh, is dead of cancer of the tongue. He will be succeeded by his son,
the Duke of Albany.

Presidential Privileges.

It would create a sensation in the country if, during the consideration of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty in the senate, the president should present himself at the closed doors and ask to be admitted. If he should take this action, the doors would have to be opened to him. More than this, he would find a place reserved for him on the right of the presiding officer, Senator Frye. It is not generally known that the rules of the senate provide for the presence of the president in executive sessions.
Here is the text of the rule: "When the president of the United States shall meet the senate in the senate chamber for the consideration of executive business, he shall have a seat on the right of the presiding officer."
It has been many a long day, recalls
the Washington Post, since the president has participated in the secret sessions of the senate. It was a favorite habit with Washington and some of the earlier presidents, and in the records of the senate are still preserved the letters which Washington used to send, notifying the senators that he intended to make an official call upon them. Nowadays, the senators go to see the president.
More than this, if the president should order the senate to meet him in the cabinet room of the white house, for instance, they would obey;
for one of the senate rules expressly provides that when the senate shall be convened in any place by the president of the United States, the presiding officer and the senators shall assemble at the place appointed.

POWERS ON THE STAND.

He Makes Several Denials Charged by Witnesses for Prosecution.

Georgetown, Ky., July 31.—Ex-Sec-etary of State Caleb Powers took the stand in his own behalf yesterday, but did not complete his testimony on di-rect examination. He will be on the stand all today. His defense is an ad-mission that he organized the body of mountaineers who went to Frankfort on sev-eral occasions last winter for influence with the state contest board and the leg-islature, but not to intimidate them. He entered a denial of the damaging charges made against him by Witnesses Culton, Golden, Noakes and others.

He denied that Henry Youtsey had the keys to his office on the day of the assassination, but said that there were two keys to the office, one of which was in the possession of Former Assistant Secretary of State W. J. Davidson and another in possession of Ben Rowe, Governor Taylor's colored porter. Pow-ers says neither of these keys was ever in his possession and that he had his own key in his pocket in Louisville the day of the assassination. Davidson is in the far west, supposed to be in the state of Washington, and Rowe, the colored porter, is somewhere in Indiana, probably at Anderson.

Commonwealth Attorney Franklin said that if it is shown that Robert Weaver, the witness who claimed to be from Colorado, and who gave sensa-tional testimony, swore falsely he will be prosecuted for perjury. Weaver is being held here and the commonwealth attorney instructed the police to shadow him and prevent him leaving, pending an investigation.

Georgetown, Ky., July 31.—Caleb Powers resumed the witness stand in his own behalf today. He said on the morning of the assassination he was preparing to go to Louisville make arrangements for bringing more people to Frankfort. He locked his office door as decreed by witness Golden. Had no recollection of anything he said concern-ing suspicious actions which Golden had referred to and was certain nothing this sort was said. At La Grange a party heard Goebel had been assassinated and that the shot had been fired from the second or third story of the executive building. The witness said he declared the deed an outrage and would blight the chances of all whose offices were in contest.

Alabama Politics.

Birmingham, July 31.—The state elec-tion will be held one week from Monday. The greater part of the campaign work has been done in counties, which here-tofore returned Populists majorities. The indications are a number of Populist counties will be reduced 75 per cent. The Democratic ticket headed by Colonel W. J. Samford, for governor, will be chosen by a big majority. Dr. G. B. Crowe, the Populist candidate for governor, has practically admitted the party had no chance. Republicans are making no claims whatever. In several counties in the western and northern part of the state they have some speakers on the stump.

Action of Creek Indians.

Tulsa, I. T., July 31.—Large numbers of Indians, under the lead of one Harjo, held a meeting here Monday at which they decided to divide the Creek Nation into its original 47 towns. They propose to return to their tribal customs and establish their own court, although such a course will conflict with the United States laws.

Rathbone Gives Bail.

New Corn in Hill County.

Hillsboro, Tex., July 31.—Weller & Scofield bought the first load of new corn Monday for 30 cents a bushel. It was fine corn and well matured. Mr. Russell says his crop will average 40 bushels an acre.

Drummer Suicides.

Dallas, July 31.—William G. Lang, a drummer for a Chicago lumber company, suicided here Monday night by shooting himself. Ill health is supposed to be the cause.

CHAFFEE TO COMMAND

Will Lead the Advance on the Chinese Capital.

BACKED BY BRITISH

Should the British Falter, He Will Take His Own Men and Make the Advance upon the Orders from Washington.

Washington, July 31.—The report from London that British and American troops at Tien Tsin are preparing for the advance within 48 hours aroused much interest here. The announcement seems to have been made just before the arrival of General Chaffee at Taku and gives rise to some interesting theories concerning the effect of that commander's presence. It is generally believed that if the London report is correct the arrival of General Chaffee at Tien Tsin will mean the instant cutting loose of British and American forces from other troops and their advance under General Chaffee's command.

General Chaffee has not gone to China to act as a subordinate commander in the allied army, unless that should command itself to him as the best way of carrying out his purposes. He is expected to carry out the policy of the United States without regard to its acceptability to other powers.

The United States has already indicated its impatience of the delay and its desire for an immediate forward movement. It has represented to the other powers that such an advance should be made and has directed Admiral Remy to urge this policy on the other commanders. It is certain that immediate advance is the American policy and that the Americans only await General Chaffee's arrival to begin carrying it out. The extraordinary rapidity of Chaffee's movements shows he realizes how much depends on his prompt arrival.

Reports from London indicate to the people who are aware of this state of affairs that the British are ready to fall in with Chaffee's plan, even if other Europeans and Japanese do not. It is surmised that the British are aware of Chaffee's intentions and are now preparing to join Americans in an advance as soon as Chaffee orders it and this is the meaning of the report. It is certain, however, that Chaffee will begin a forward movement at the earliest possible moment whether the British join or not.

It is suggested that the British have been anxious for a forward movement, but have been handicapped by the smallness of their numbers and that they hail the news of Chaffee's arrival as a means of carrying out their desires. They then will be no longer compelled to defer to the conflicting wishes of other commanders.

It is concluded that General Chaffee will be commander of the American and British forces when he marches out of Tien Tsin. Perhaps by the time he arrives there some of the other forces will be willing to join him, but in any event the American general will carry out his own policy, glad of support if he can get it, but determined on fulfilling his instructions even if he goes it single handed.

CHINA DECLARED WAR.

It Was so Ordered Before the German Minister Was Killed.

London, July 31.—A special dispatch from Tien Tsin says:

"A Peking message, dated July 21, reports the first outside news reached here on July 18. The failure of the relief expedition made the siege far more perilous. On July 19, the tsung li yamen broke off relations. July 20, China declared war. Baron Von Ketteler and Francis James, the English professor, were murdered. Over 400 noncombatants occupied the British legation. I understand converts are holding the north cathedral. One thousand refugees occupied the palace of Prince Lu. A truce began July 17, after 26 days of fierce assault. One night the shelling was uninterrupted for six hours."

WORD FROM MACDONALD.

He Reports an Armistice and Places the Killed at Sixty-Two.

London, July 31.—Sir Claude MacDonald's welcome dispatch dated Peking, July 21, and received in cipher, is accepted on all sides as dispelling any doubts that might still have existed regarding the genuineness of the dispatch.

Owing to an error in transmission the message fails to show the number of wounded. David Oliphant and Warren were two student interpreters.

The message fails to mention the other legations and other matters of importance, but it should be borne in mind that the British minister may not be aware that all his previous dispatches have been suppressed. He may be under the impression that the government is fully posted regarding all recent occurrences.

The following is the message from MacDonald at Peking:

"British legation, Peking—June 20 to July 16 repeatedly attacked by Chinese troops on all sides. Both by rifle and artillery fire. Since July 16 an armistice, but a cordon is strictly drawn on both sides of the position. Chinese barricades close to ours."

"All women and children in British legation. Casualties to date 62 killed including Captain Strouts. A number of wounded are in the hospital, including Captain Halliday. The rest of the legation all well except David Oliphant and Warren, killed on July 21."

Apart from the above dispatch there is practically no fresh news, although a special from Tien Tsin asserts that the British and American forces are getting ready to advance within 48 hours.

Li Hung Chang remains at Shanghai. He says that the great heat prevents him from continuing the journey to Peking.

Japanese Losses at Peking.

Shanghai, July 31.—The Japanese minister has forwarded a letter to Tien Tsin stating that the casualties at the Japanese legation in Peking were Capt. Ando, Attache Kojima and five marines killed and Secretary Narahara wounded.

Returning to China.

Vancouver, B. C., July 31.—There sailed today from Vancouver on the steamer Empress of India 50 prominent Chinese reformers from New York and Boston; 20 from Seattle and 30 from Vancouver, all were bound for Macao, and all wearing conspicuously displayed a button photograph of their emperor, Kuang Hsu.

The Chinese Empire Reform Association of the World had received a cable message from its leader, Kwang Yu Wie, instructing the association to send leading members to Macao at once, where a council of war will be held to consider ways of raising an army among members of the association to support the allied powers.

Attacking New Chang.

Shanghai, July 31.—The Japanese have news that 10,000 Chinese are attacking New Chwang, with 4000 Russians opposing them. This news was received here Monday.

Several Legations Destroyed.

Paris, July 31.—According to dispatches received at the foreign office here the Austrian, Spanish, Italian and Holland legations at Peking have been destroyed and the French legations partially wrecked. Attacks on the legations ceased some time ago. Emperor and empress living in Peking.

Towne Confers With Bryan.

Lincoln, July 31.—Charles A. Towne is in Lincoln to have a conference with Mr. Bryan. When seen he said he had no statement to make concerning his candidacy or his possible withdrawal from the Populist ticket. He said the time was too early to make any announcement. Mr. Towne came directly from Nevada where he had been making speeches.

Towne will leave here for Chicago to meet the national committeemen and will go from there to Colfax, Ia., to speak on Aug. 3. After this he expects to return home. He will not go to Indianapolis on Aug. 8.

Policeman's Narrow Escape.

St. Louis, July 31.—Assistant Captain of the Police Young was riding on the rear platform of a car on the Seventh street Southern Electric line Monday night and noticed a sputtering light on the tracks behind. He alighted to investigate and when within 15 yards of the object a terrific explosion ensued which tore a hole as large as a bushel basket in the Macadam pavement. The captain was rendered unconscious, but recovered his senses in time to stamp out the lighted fuse which was attached to a second dynamite bomb.

Prominent Lawyer Dead.

Austin, July 31.—George F. Poindexter, one of the most brilliant and able members of the Texas bar, died at 8 o'clock this morning after 10 days' illness. He was compelled to go to bed 10 days ago on account of pain from a carbuncle on his arm. Fever set in a few days later and last Saturday typhoid fever developed and he was unconscious from Sunday night until his death. He has resided in Austin since 1874 and his career as a lawyer was most brilliant. He leaves a wife and one child.

Lumber Firm Fails.

Oklahoma City, O. T., July 31.—The wholesale lumber firm of T. M. Richardson & Son, of this place, with headquarters at Houston, Tex., has made an assignment for the benefit of its creditors. The liabilities will reach $240,000, assets unknown. They filed a petition in bankruptcy. The Richardson Lumber company did business in Oklahoma, Texas and Indian Territory under the names of T. M. Richardson & Son Lumber company, Richardson Lumber company and Willburton Lumber company.

Accidentally Killed His Brother.

Guthrie, O. T., July 31.—Joe Harry, the 9-year-old son of Joseph Harry, at Alva, was found dead in bed with a bullet hole in his head. His 16-year-old brother, James Harry, was in the house, and at first denied any knowledge of his brother's death, but later admitted that he shot him, the pistol being discharged accidentally. In his fright he hid the weapon and denied any knowledge of the accident.

Want Jones for Congress.

Galveston, July 31.—Lavaea county Republicans have instructed for Mayor Walter O. Jones for congress. Mayor Jones is now out of the city, but men close to him who know his views declare he is not a candidate, and prefers R. B. Hawley, at the same time he would accept the nomination if tendered.

Robbed and Burned.

Muncie, Ind., July 31.—The general store of Frank Sharp, at Progress, was looted by robbers and the building was then fired and destroyed with all contents. Nothing was saved except some stuff taken from the postoffice and lost by the robbers, who used a wagon in hauling away the plunder.
